PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE: "BE PREPARED"

This motto is so well known and so true that the one who has observed it has benefited greatly over the one who has not. And what is true of individuals is certainly true of groups. The highlight of the Central States Numismatic Society year is the annual convention in some city situated in one of the central states. The convention state is never too far away to be a great financial or time burden to get there. But our Society has been growing so much that it is now a problem as to what cities can and should hold the convention. Many other groups have found the same problem.

In addition to "size of the city" as a factor in scheduling the convention we have another problem. Americans are joiners and each outfit they belong to wants to schedule some kind of get-together somewhere. They are signing up hotels far in advance. This means competition not only for cities but also for accommodations, that is, hotels with proper facilities for housing the members and the organizations, display, bourse and meeting rooms.

There are a number of cities that are able and willing to take on these responsibilities, but they have been holding off for various reasons. You can't do that and avoid headaches. The city that looks ahead and establishes a beachhead long in advance has the battle half won. By long ahead I mean three or four years ahead. The initiative is yours; make the most of it.

To help you "Be Prepared" the Central States Numismatic Society has done two things. First, we've had a committee working on a "Convention Guide" that should contain all the wisdom of the many general chairmen who have previously run conventions and their associates. It won't be theory but practical advice. This booklet will be so set up that it can be "torn apart," that is there will be separate sheets of suggestions that the general chairman can hand out to his fellow workers and say "Go to it" and know that they have a good foundation upon which to start. Secondly, a group of well known numismatists, who know what it takes to run a convention, have been appointed to a Convention Planning Committee. They will act as advisors to help you get the convention to your city. This committee is listed elsewhere in THE SENTINEL. So for yours and our welfare "Be Prepared."

See you in St. Louis, April 26, 1957. See you in Cincinnati in 1958. See you in ? in 1959, in ? in 1960.

—EDWIN C. GERBER President, CSNS

CSNS SECRETARY PRO TEM

Secretary-Treasurer Earl C. Brown, is still hospitalized from the paralyzing illness of March 15, 1957. He is at the Swedish Covenant Hospital, 5145 N. California Ave., Chicago 25, Ill.

President Gerber appointed M. Vernon Sheldon to handle the secretarial duties temporarily until the election date, April 28, 1957.

The dues for the 1957-1958 CSNS fraternal year will be collected by the newly elected Secretary-Treasurer following the April 28th date.

CSNS exhibition rules, not being republished in this issue of the SENTINEL, are available from the Chairman of the St. Louis Convention Exhibits, Arnold S. Meyer, 200 Sumner Blvd., Collinsville, Ill.

CONVENTION GUIDE BOOK COMMITTEE

At Indianapolis last spring, Pres. Gerber appointed a committee to prepare a convention guide for the use of clubs which are hosts to future conventions. Chairman is Lillard W. Culver; other members are Ray Fiscus, Harold Bowen, James Berkel and Lewis M. Reagan. The following were named to act in an advisory capacity: Elston G. Bradfield, Earl C. Brown, Lee F. Hewitt and Glenn B. Smedley.

RICHARD D. KENNEY DIES

Richard D. Kenney, 39, 3204 Radiance Rd., Louisville, Ky., died of a heart attack early in March. His body was flown to New York City where funeral services were conducted March 6. Surviving are his widow, three sons, his mother and a sister. For many years he had been engaged in professional numismatic work, the last few years with James, Inc., of Louisville. He was the author of many articles and monographs on numismatic subjects, among them Struck Copies of Early American Coins, Early American Medalists and Die-Sinkers, and So-Called Dollars. He was CSNS Member No. 653, A.N.A. Member No. 10253, and was affiliated with other numismatic groups. At the time of his death he was a governor of the Central States Numismatic Society.

BURNIE PLEADS GUILTY

The notorious R. H. Burnie of Pascagoula, Miss. and Texarkana, Texas, who fled to Mexico last year after fleecing a number of American coin collectors of over $35,000 in a rigged mail auction, surrendered to federal authorities in Texas on February 25 and the next day pleaded guilty to charges of mail fraud. He was sentenced shortly thereafter to serve three years in the federal penitentiary on each of five counts with sentences to run concurrently.

Several years ago Burnie, a new comer to coin collectings ranks, set himself up as an authority on small California gold coins and wrote a book on the subject. In February, 1956, he distributed an auction catalog purporting to offers hundreds of rare gold coins and stating that the owner of the coins had specified that a cash deposit of at least half the auction bids must accompany each bid sheet. Burnie then absconded with the deposits. Those who sent him money, of course, received no coins in return.

CSNS 1957 CONVENTION AUCTIONEER

James Kelly will conduct the 1957 CSNS convention auction. The auction catalog may be obtained from him at his office, Third and Broadway, Dayton, Ohio.

SECRETARY-TREASURER BROWN ILL

Secretary-Treasurer Earl C. Brown is still in Swedish Covenant Hospital, 5145 N. California Ave., Chicago, Ill. where he was taken following a sudden illness about six weeks ago. He has heard from well-wishers and desires to take this opportunity of thanking his friends for their cards and messages of cheer. Much of the success of the CSNS as a regional organization is due to the hard work and long hours of effort by its Secretary-Treasurer. We wish for him an early and complete restoration of health.

CONVENTION PLANNING COMMITTEE

About three months ago Pres. E. C. Gerber of the Central States Numismatic Society appointed a convention planning committee to survey possible convention cities and their hotels. Initiative for invitations to hold CSNS conventions will continue to come from the local groups but this committee is designed to assist in long range planning. Members are Harold E. Baker, chairman, Loyd B. Gettys, Sol Kaplan, H. M. Nelson, Russell W. Stehfest, Harry Collura, Col. James W. Curtis, Lee F. Hewitt, Glenn B. Smedley, Leo G. Terry, and Earl C. Brown. The late Richard D. Kenney was also a member.
